SUSAN COHEN

Marketing Director
Brandywine Senior Living

Susan Cohen has been in health care for 25 years. Her first positions were as the volunteer coordinator, outreach worker and public relations director at Jewish Family Services in Atlantic County, New Jersey. For the next 10 years she was the director of social services in several nursing and rehab centers in New Jersey.

Cohen was instrumental in the formation of the Ethics Committees in New Jersey and was the chairperson of a Regional Ethics Committee for nine years.

She began working for Brandywine Senior Living roughly 12 years ago. Cohen was transferred to New York two years ago to market their two New York buildings, Brandywine Senior Living at The Savoy and Huntington Terrace. She is currently working as the Director of Community Relations at Brandywine Senior Living at The Savoy, doing sales and marketing and enjoying cultivating community partnerships to empower our seniors.

Cohen has a BA in psychology from The George Washington University, C.A.L.A., Certified Assisted Living Administrator License in New Jersey, Assisted living Administrator training in Pennsylvania and CSW, certified social worker, for many years in New Jersey.
