"Class Reunion" is one of the plays in Brandywine's Curtain Call series, a program which includes auditions, casting, rehearsals and performance of a new play each month. Curtain Call is part of Brandywine's Escapades for Life, which offers art, discussion groups, crafts, cooking, talent shows, tailgate parties during football season and even karaoke on Saturday nights.
